Harlees Fish and chips is an award-winning family business based out of Corfe Mullen, Dorset, operating 8 shops and restaurants across Dorset and Wiltshire. Due to the nature of the family run business team members are able to communicate directly with decision makers and have access to services and support that may not be provided by larger companies.

Harlees strives to provide great, quality food with a friendly and efficient service. The business is constantly innovating and looking for ways to improve the customer's experience.

The ideal candidate

The ideal candidate will work proactively as part of the shop team to provide quality food and service customers. Communicate with their management teams with ideas or any issues. They will bring a positive attitude to work, completing tasks assigned to them in an efficient manner, whether it be serving customers, dishing up meals or cleaning. No experience is necessary as full training will be provided but experience in catering would be advantageous. Due to the nature of the hospitality sector team members will be required to work some evenings and weekends.
